

Marni Sheehan & Mark Smith

Blues & roots, originals, alt & vintage country

PRESS RELEASE

Marni Sheehan & Mark Smith first worked together in the legendary psychedelic blues band 'Reuben Tice' in the late seventies. Marni has since worked with many Melbourne bands as a bass player/songwriter. Her songwriter credits include finalist placings in 2 ASA contests, Cygnet Folk Festival Song & Tune Comp 2017, & The Austin Texas Songwriting Contest. Mark has worked as lead guitar/vocalist in countless bands in the Melbourne and Sydney music scenes since 1972. Mark has always had a strong interest in blues & roots music bringing his own combination of picking & slide into his playing style & repertoire.

Marni & Mark have again joined forces to perform & record as a duo playing rootsy blues, originals, alt & vintage country. They are multi-instrumentalists and songwriters and their new album A CRAZY DREAM is a collection of songs weaving pictures & stories of their musical journeying over decades following the crazy dream of writing and performing music.

Marni and Mark are celebrating the release of their new album 'A Crazy Dream'.
